

Summer Camp for High School Writers

Have you ever wanted a little more time to work on your writing? Have you ever wanted to work with friends and peers to improve your writing?

At Writing Camp, you'll learn strategies to use whenever you write, from the beginning of the process through drafting and editing to the final finished product. The instructor will cover the following strategies:

- * Selecting an interesting topic
- * Developing papers in detail
- * Using sources effectively & blending them into your writing
- * Ways to sound like a scholar
- * Style and voice—spice up your writing!
- * Editing strategies

You will work closely with a Delaware Writing Project Teacher Consultant, as well as peers in a community of writers.

DATES: July 21—25, 2008

TIME: 9:00—3:30 PM

LOCATION: Pearson Hall Room 007, University of Delaware

INSTRUCTOR: Kristin Yonko, DWP Teacher Consultant
